

Grading

For the sake of transparency (and to avoid any complicated math), consider the percentages listed below as part of an overall total number of points. In other words, your final grade in the class is determined out of one hundred (100) possible points, with each paper (excepting the first, which is only twenty) representing twenty-five (25) of that total. For your convenience, please see the following table:

Paper Grading Breakdown - Total: 70 pts	Breakdown of Additional Requirements - Total: 30 pts
Essay 1 - 20 pts	Class Participation/In-Class and Online Assignments - 10 pts
Essay 2 - 30 pts	Journal Assignments - 10 pts
Essay 3 - 20 pts	Oral Presentation/Group Project - 10 pts
